

U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of Minnesota

Rule 9021-1. Entry of Judgments in Adversary Proceedings

Upon entry of a judgment in an adversary proceeding to deny or revoke a discharge, to revoke the confirmation of a plan, or to subordinate a claim, the clerk must also enter the judgment in the bankruptcy case and provide notice to the entities listed in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002 in the manner specified in that rule.

[Effective April 15, 1997. Amended effective January 1, 2002; January 9, 2006; December 1, 2009; October 1, 2019; July 17, 2023.]

2023 Advisory Committee Notes

Local Rule 9021-1 was retitled, restyled, and amended to remove language that was duplicative of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5003, 7054, and 9021. Former subsection (b), which now constitutes the substance of the rule, was also amended to clarify that certain judgments entered in adversary proceedings will also be entered in the bankruptcy case and the clerk will provide notice of such judgments to the entities listed in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002.
